

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Joanna Marie Santillana,
Petitioner,

v.

State of Alaska,
Respondent.

Supreme Court No. S-18206

Notice of Filing Appellate Rule 215(k)

Date of Notice: 10/5/2021

Court of Appeals Case No. A-13336
Trial Court Case No. 3AN-17-06397CR

1. The court of appeals in Joanna Santillana v. State of Alaska found that it had no jurisdiction to determine whether the sentence imposed by the trial court was excessive and referred that issue to the supreme court for discretionary review under Appellate Rules 402 and 403 as provided by Appellate Rule 215(k). Court of appeals MO&J No. 6971 (Alaska App. 2021).

2. On or before 10/15/2021, counsel for petitioner shall advise the court and opposing counsel whether petitioner wishes to file a petition for review under Appellate Rules 402 and 403 or, in the alternative, whether petitioner wishes to rely on the arguments submitted in the briefing in the court of appeals. The State shall have 10 days from the date of service of petitioner's notice or petition to file a response, or to advise the court and opposing counsel that it is relying on its briefing in the court of appeals. If either party chooses to rely on the briefing in the court of appeals, six copies of that brief shall be submitted with the notice.

3. Attorneys whose names and addresses are correct on this notice need not file an entry of appearance. All documents filed by a party who is not represented by counsel shall include an address at which that party can be served. Appellate Rule 518.
